

Bauerwood Beacon

News from Bauerwood Elementary

I am hoping you all had lots of opportunities to make memories over the last two weeks. I am definitely looking forward to getting back to school on Monday and seeing all of the kids again. We have a busy month of January with our building wide benchmark testing happening the week of January 16! It is exciting to see the growth in students at this halfway point in the school year.

Dates to Remember

Mark your calendars for a few fun events.

Wednesday, Jan. 11 Bauerwood Family Network Meeting 7:00 pm at Bauerwood

Friday, Jan. 13 Bauerwood goes to JCA for short afternoon Shrek performance

Wednesday, Jan 18 - 20 6th Grade Camp

Friday, Jan 20 ½ Day, End of 1st Semester, Students Dismissed at 11:50am

Friday, Jan 27 ½ Day Teacher Professional Learning, Students Dismissed at 11:50am

Snack Closet

As we start the New Year, it is time to refill our snack closet! Snacks are given to students in the classroom when they forget during the day or cannot focus on learning due to hunger. We appreciate all of your snack donations that kept us full until Christmas break.

End of First Semester

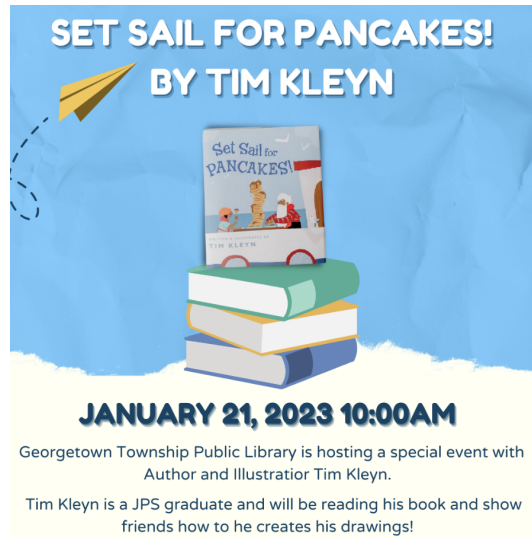

January 20 is a half day for students and the end of the first semester. Report cards will be sent home in Friday folders on January 27.

Yearbook Orders

If you have not yet purchased a year book, now is the time!

Jenison Author/Illustrator

Bauerwood graduate Tim Kleyn will be visiting our building on Friday to read to our Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grade students! He will also be at the Georgetown Library on Saturday, January 21 at 10:00 am.

6th Grade Immunizations

If your child is 11 years old and has not received the Meningococcal vaccine or the Tdap booster, please contact your family physician to schedule an appointment. These vaccines are required for 7th grade.

Volunteer Opportunities

Be on the look-out for several opportunities coming up to volunteer as a Watch Dog Dad, library support or office copy support. We will be sending out a schedule this week!
