Social Media Commenting Guidelines

Our social media pages are designed to celebrate our students, staff, and schools, while also sharing important updates and events. We encourage you to share your support, connect with other supporters, and frequently visit for news and updates.

While everyone is welcome and encouraged to comment, our first priority is to protect students, staff, and community members. Comments and/or posts that do not follow this Comment Policy may be removed.

We have a zero-tolerance policy for cyberbullying and/or posts or comments that are political, racist, sexist, abusive, profane, violent, obscene, spam, contain falsehoods or are wildly off-topic, or that libel, incite, threaten or make ad hominem attacks on students, employees, guests or other individuals. We also do not permit messages selling products or promoting commercial or other ventures. You participate at your own risk, taking personal responsibility for your comments, your username, and any information provided. We reserve the right to delete comments or topics and even ban users if needed. Please be aware that all content and posts are bound by Facebook's Terms of Use.

Jenison Public Schools encourages user interaction on its social pages but is not responsible for comments or wall postings made by visitors to the page. Additionally, the appearance of external links, as posted by fans of this page or other Facebook users, does not constitute endorsement on behalf of Jenison Public Schools. In most if not all cases, external links posted by fans will be removed.

You should not provide private or personal information (phone, email, addresses, etc.) regarding yourself or others on this page. Any posts or comments containing personal information of this nature will be deleted.
